Dickinson County Commission proclaims Community Foundation Week

*By Kathy Hageman/
Dickinson County Public Information Coordinator*

The Dickinson County Commission proclaimed Nov. 12-18, 2021, as Community Foundation Week during its regular meeting Thursday morning, Nov. 4.

Board members and staff of the Community Foundation of Dickinson County were present Thursday as Commission Chairman Lynn Peterson hands the signed proclamation to Elizabeth Weese, executive director of the Community Foundation of Dickinson County.

The proclamation states that Community Foundations are one of the fastest growing forms of philanthropy in the United States and abroad. Directed by a board of volunteers, Community Foundations provide effective leadership in communities throughout the United States, often supplementing or assisting the coordination of public programs and other services.

The proclamation recognizes the Dickinson County organization, all volunteer organizations and the concerned individuals who donate their time, talent and material resources to them.
